

BOSTON, JANUARY 15, 1901

... PRICES OF ...

GINSENG ROOTS AND SEEDS

LAST OFFER FOR SPRING 1901

All previous quotations annulled and these prices liable to change without notice.

The very extraordinary demand for Ginseng plants and seeds still continues, and I beg to give notice that my stock of second size roots is entirely exhausted, and no more orders can be taken for this size for spring delivery. A limited supply of extra and first sizes on hand, and about 2,000 only of the third size are still offered, and, to secure them, orders must be placed at once.

For those who wish to make a small beginning, and test this great plant, I am offering the following collections for $10. This will enable every one to get a fair start, and at moderate cost:

10 Extra size, 10 Third size,
50 First size, 30 Second size.

This combination will not be broken, excepting that half the number of each of the above will be sent for $5.

The larger sizes should produce seed the first season, and you will gain a year by making a start this spring.

Stock will be reserved only when cash accompanies order, and the fulfillment of orders cannot be guaranteed until received and booked. So place your spring orders at once, and save disappointment.

PRICES OF PLANTS

	Per 10	100	1,000
Extra size	$2 50	$20 00	$160 00
First size, averaging 3-year-old roots	1 50	12 00	100 00
Second size. Stock exhausted.
Third size, averaging 1-year-old roots	1 00	5 00	40 00

PRICES OF SEEDS

40 Seeds	100 Seeds	500 Seeds	1,000 Seeds
$1 00	$2 00	$9 00	$17 00

Special prices will be made to those requiring a very large quantity of plants and seeds.

Note that these prices are from 50 to 200 per cent lower than can be obtained elsewhere. Buy direct, and save paying exorbitant prices.

NOTE: An illustrated circular, giving full instructions as to Ginseng culture, mailed on receipt of 10 cents. This is by far the best publication obtainable on this subject.

Always address

Proprietor Highlands Nursery
Hardy American Plants in the Carolina Mountains . . .
CATALOGUES FREE

HARLAN P. KELSEY,
Tremont Building, Boston, Mass.

CHINESE ROOTS AND SEEDS

—PART ONE: FIVE SEEDS—

For the purpose of this work, the seeds are arranged in the following order: 1. The first seed is the most common and is found in the most common of the Chinese roots and seeds.

2. The second seed is the most common and is found in the most common of the Chinese roots and seeds.

3. The third seed is the most common and is found in the most common of the Chinese roots and seeds.

4. The fourth seed is the most common and is found in the most common of the Chinese roots and seeds.

5. The fifth seed is the most common and is found in the most common of the Chinese roots and seeds.

—PART TWO: FIVE SEEDS—

For the purpose of this work, the seeds are arranged in the following order: 1. The first seed is the most common and is found in the most common of the Chinese roots and seeds.

2. The second seed is the most common and is found in the most common of the Chinese roots and seeds.

3. The third seed is the most common and is found in the most common of the Chinese roots and seeds.

4. The fourth seed is the most common and is found in the most common of the Chinese roots and seeds.

5. The fifth seed is the most common and is found in the most common of the Chinese roots and seeds.